

2004 Joint Annual
Indiana MPO Conference
and
Midwest Transportation Planning Conference

Indianapolis, Indiana

Make plans now to come to Indianapolis, Indiana, the Crossroads of America. The nation's 12th largest city (806,454) is accessible from a wide variety of locations, as more interstate highways bisect our city and state than any other in the country.

Downtown Indianapolis is home to the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art, the NCAA Hall of Champions, White River State Park, an IMAX Theater, Indiana State Museum, Indianapolis Zoo, Circle Centre Mall, the Congressional Medal of Honor Memorial, the USS Indianapolis Memorial and the famous Monument Circle, all within walking distance of hotels and the beautiful Central Canal.

Indianapolis, the Racing Capital of the World, hosts the two largest single-day sporting events in the world: the Indianapolis 500 and the Brickyard 400 as well as the largest Formula One race in the world, the United States Grand Prix. Indianapolis also boasts other rich sporting traditions in basketball (Indiana Pacers), football (Indianapolis Colts), ice hockey (Indianapolis Ice), and baseball (Indianapolis Indians).
